2010 CALIGIORE ORGANIC RESERVE MALBEC

PRODUCED BY: CALIGIORE ORGANIC VINEYARDS -MENDOZA, ARGENTINA

PALATE – Dense spices & a powerful array of strong berry fruits are evident as you step into a bit of creamy vanilla and blackberries. Raspberry jam with hints of toffee & chocolate are lovely additions.

VARIETAL / BLEND
100% Old Vine Malbec
(Vineyard planted in 1930)

FOOD PAIRINGS – Grilled meats, spicy pizza, dry cheeses or BBQ

BOUQUET – Intense and complex with outstanding floral aromas of roses and violets over red berries.

NEW BOTTLE - Caligiore is proud to utilize a light, eco-friendly grade of glass in preparation of this value priced wine. Each case of 12 glass bottles weighs 2 less pounds than previous vintages, reducing our carbon footprint!

WINE DETAILS - Winemaker – Gustavo Caligiore
www.caligiore.com.ar 13.5% Alc. By Vol., 3.60 pH , 2.80 g/L Res. Sugar, 34,770 Bottles / 2897 Cases Produced, Natural Cork, Organic NOP Certified

CELLARING POTENTIAL – The 2010 vintage should open up over the next 2 years with a bit of decanting and will benefit to age gracefully for 8-10 years. Optimal Cellaring – 4 years

WINE NOTES & AGING - This single vineyard wine was 100% organically grown at over 3000 ft. above sea level in Mendoza, Argentina on the Caligiore Organic Vineyards. Produced in an easy drinking style with "old vine" Malbec (80 year old vineyards). The balance of the wine was aged in tank while 20% received French Oak aging for eight months to extend the palate and mouth feel.

REGIONAL DETAILS – Mendoza, Argentina is the home of South America's most recognized wine region and Malbec is the King of Argentina with more hectares under production than any other single grape varietal. This wine captures the essence of the warm days and cool nights in the Central Mendoza region where Caligiore is committed to organic viticulture that utilizes science and advanced farming techniques for optimally ripe grapes.
